has successfully completed the online, non-credit Professional Certificate

IBM Skills Network

IBM Front-End Development with Figma, Bootstrap & Git

In this Professional Certificate, learners developed the core skills needed to design and develop web and front-end applications. The Certificate holder has demonstrated the ability to build web pages using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript; apply user interface and user experience (UI/UX) best practices and principles; manage code using GitHub repositories and branches; create applications using front-end frameworks, such as React JS; test and debug applications; deploy applications using automated build tools; and create a fully functional front-ends for dynamic apps that interact with external/backend services using RESTful APIs. The certificate holder should be ready to take on the challenges of an entry-level front end developer role.

The online specialization named in this certificate may draw on material from courses taught on-campus, but the included courses are not equivalent to on-campus courses. Participation in this online specialization does not constitute enrollment at this university. This certificate does not confer a University grade, course credit or degree, and it does not verify the identity of the learner.
